

Food + Wine Victoria & Global Table in collaboration with Food Innovation Australia Limited invites you to join the Australian Stand at Seeds&Chips - The Global Food Innovation Summit in Milan, Italy from 6 to 9 May 2019.

Why Seeds&Chips?

Seeds&Chips is a leading, international summit dedicated to food innovation, investors, thought leaders, corporates and policymakers focused on the future of food and food technology. Featuring leaders, international speakers and like-minded businesses, you are invited to bring your ideas to a vibrant, international and like-minded audience.

As part of the Australian delegation, you are invited to promote Australian capability, showcase your innovations, connect with new partners and invite them to Australia this September to experience Australian food and agribusiness innovation for themselves at the exciting new, Global Table business event.

What types of businesses should attend?

Companies from across the food and agribusiness supply chain including (but not limited to) food, agribusiness, technology, packaging and research. This is your chance to showcase your innovation and meet others who have solutions to your challenges.

NB: This event is not a traditional sales or trade environment.

Being part of this exciting event will provide your organisation with:

- A branded 2m x 2m exhibition space with merchandising shelves and small presentation table
- 2 VIP tickets to attend the 4 day event which includes all the exhibition areas of Seeds&Chips, TUTTOFOOD and the keynote sessions
- Access to business matching app with other delegates
- Freight - Food Innovation Australia Limited can help arrange freight for the event but this is not included in the initial cost.
- Excludes refrigerated transport. Weight limits apply.
- Subject to Terms and Conditions
- Optional site tour day on Friday 10 May to Italian Food Innovation Centres
- Evening Networking event

Where should I stay?

Although you are welcome to select your own accommodation, stand organisers have a block booking with Duomo Apartments, located in Milan and a 20 minute train ride to Seeds&Chips. Room rates are approx. $250-$270 per night. Numbers are limited, please let us know ASAP if you would like to reserve one of these rooms and we will provide you with the registration code.

We hope you can join us on this amazing opportunity!
